Ways to Wake Up Your Spiritual Life During Lent

- Be a Simon the Cyrenean. Simon helped carry Jesus' cross. Today, offer to help a neighbor, family member, or co-worker with a tough chore. The help can be physical, emotional, or spiritual.
- Worship with friends or family. Be attentive to the songs, prayers, and readings. Discuss the homily after Mass.
- Pick up a copy of "The Word Among Us" from the parish Commons area. Devote just a few moments a day to reflecting on God's Word.
- Give it up. Pick one habit that drags you down or keeps you from living fully. Just for today, let go of it. Fill that emptiness with something positive.
- Rise and pray. Get up 1/2-hour early today and spend the time in prayer.
- Travel lighter. Today, and for the rest of Lent, give away one possession every few days to someone who can use it more than you. Make more room in your life for God.

Lenten Regulations
for Fasting and Abstinence

Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of Lent and is a day of universal fasting and abstinence. The following fasting and abstinence regulations are observed throughout Lent:

Abstinence from meat is observed on Ash Wednesday (Feb. 18), Good Friday (April 3) and all the Fridays of Lent by all Catholics 14 years of age and older.

Fasting is observed on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday by all Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59 years of age. Those bound by this rule may take only one full meal. Two smaller meals are permitted as necessary to maintain strength according to one's needs, but eating solid foods between meals is not permitted.

Those who are sick, pregnant, or nursing, or whose health would adversely be affected by fasting or abstinence, should not consider themselves bound by these norms.

During the season of Lent, all Catholics are called to embrace penances and to perform works of charity that reflect a deep desire for conversion of heart. Also they are called to pray fervently for those Catechumens and Candidates who will celebrate the Easter Sacraments with the Church this year. May this Lent lead all to a deeper union in Christ with one another.

Reglas para el Ayuno y la Abstinencia en Cuaresma

El Miércoles de Ceniza marca el inicio de la Cuaresma y es un día universal de ayuno y abstinencia. Las siguientes reglas de ayuno y abstinencia deben ser observadas durante la Cuaresma:

La Abstinencia de comer carne se observa el Miércoles de Ceniza (Feb. 18), Viernes Santo (Abril 3) y todos los viernes de Cuaresma por católicos mayores de 14 años.

El Ayuno es observado el Miércoles de Ceniza y Viernes Santo por todos aquellos católicos mayores de 18 años y menores de 59 años de edad. Durante esos días se hace sólo una comida fuerte y dos comidas livianas. No se permite comer alimentos sólidos entre comidas.

Las personas enfermas, mujeres embarazadas o que estén dando pecho, o aquellos cuya salud se vea afectada por el ayuno y la abstinencia no están obligados a seguir estas reglas.

Durante el tiempo de Cuaresma todos los católicos están llamados a practicar penitencia y hacer obras de caridad que reflejen el deseo de conversión. También se les pide que oren fervientemente por los Catecúmenos y Candidatos que recibirán sus sacramentos en la Vigilia Pascual de este año. Que este tiempo de Cuaresma nos lleve a una unión más profunda en Cristo.
