Welcome Father Andrews!

We are happy to welcome Fr. Andrews Kollanoor, M.S. to Smyrna and our parish community of St. Thomas the Apostle. Fr. Andrews arrived on Wednesday, September 28, from his native India and is looking forward to share with us in the life and ministry of our parish community.

About three years ago Fr. Andrews completed his term of office as Provincial Superior of the Missionaries of La Salette in India. For sometime afterwards he served with the La Salette Community in Tucson, Arizona. Last year he returned home to India to celebrate his 25th anniversary of priesthood. Fr. Andrews lived in the Philippines while completing his studies for the priesthood and in his early years of priestly ministry.

Give Fr. Andrews a hearty welcome when you see him!

is in the news!

Please stop by the Parish School of Religion hallways during the month of October to view some of our PSR Middle School kids' published comments on the topic "the hardest thing about being a teen today".

Our students were interviewed last Spring and their comments are featured in the October 2nd, 2011, Pflaum Gospel Weeklies, the faith formation curriculum used by St. Thomas and Parishes all over the United States and Canada.

It is an honor to display their personal contributions to our PSR Program!

A copy of the Gospel Weeklies can also be found at: www.stthomastheapostle.org/gospel-weeklies

Do you really know the Mass?

Prayers at the preparation of the gifts

As we move closer to the new changes in the Roman Missal, let us take a journey to understand the mass. We will do that by introducing and explaining the different parts of the mass in a consecutive manner. The Mass follows a "fundamental Structure which has Been preserved throughout the centuries down to our own day" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, no. 1346). Though the Mass is one united act of worship, it consists of many parts, each with its own purpose and meaning. The entries in this article follow the order in which the parts occur in the Mass.

Introductory Rites: "The rites that precede the Liturgy of the Word, namely, the Entrance, the Greeting, the Penitential Act, the Kyrie, the Glória and Collect, have the character of a beginning, an introduction, and a preparation. Their purpose is to ensure that the faithful who come together as one, establish communion and dispose themselves properly to listen to the word of God and to celebrate the Eucharist worthily" (General Instruction of the Roman Missal [GIRM], no. 46).

Collect: "The [opening] prayer . . . through which the character of the celebration finds expression" (GIRM, no. 54). This prayer literally "collects" the prayers of all who are gathered into one prayer led by the priest celebrant.

Liturgy of the Word: "The main part of the Liturgy of the Word is made up of the readings from Sacred Scripture together with the chants occurring between them. As for the Homily, the Profession of Faith and the Universal Prayer, they develop and conclude it" (GIRM, no. 55).
