A Stewardship Thought

In today's passage from Leviticus, Moses and Aaron are instructed by the Lord on how to handle leprosy cases. In St. Mark's Gospel, Jesus shows great compassion to a leper's request for healing and cures the man, who then publicly proclaims the wonder of his healing. St. Paul encourages us to imitate Christ in all things. It is imperative, therefore, that we, too, show compassion and love to the outcasts of our day.

Un Pensamiento para la Administración de los Bienes de Dios

En la lectura de hoy de Levítico, el Señor les da instrucciones a Moisés y Aarón sobre como tratar casos de lepra. En el Evangelio de San Marcos, Jesús muestra gran compasión respecto a la petición de sanación de un leproso. Él cura al hombre quien después proclama públicamente la maravilla de su sanación. San Pablo nos alienta a imitar a Cristo en todo. Por eso, es importante que nosotros también mostremos compasión y amor a los marginados de hoy en día.

"Do everything for the glory of God"
1 Corinthians 10:31

The 2012 Archbishop's Annual Appeal is now in progress. Thank you to all who have already made a commitment to the appeal.

If you have not responded as yet, please prayerfully consider your participation in helping the parish reach our goal of $133,883.

Your financial support for the work of our parish, our Archdiocese and of the Church throughout the world is, in fact, one way to give Him glory and express your gratitude.

That in the Spirit of Jesus, we commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts entrusted to us, to share our time, our talent, our material gifts as an outward sign of the treasure we hold in Jesus.

We pray to the Lord.....Lord, hear our prayer.

Que en el Espíritu de Jesús nos comprometamos a ser buenos administradores de los dones que se nos confían, para compartir nuestro tiempo, nuestro talento y nuestros bienes materiales como un signo externo del tesoro que tenemos en Jesús.

*Roguemos al Señor Señor, escucha nuestra oración.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Read Sunday's gospel: Mark 1:40-45

Reflection for Families

Not many things break the heart of a parent so quickly as seeing their child rejected by another person. Sometimes children are cruel and shun others or exclude them. Even more difficult are circumstances where adults or someone once trusted turn away from a child. Most of us don't witness these acts in our lives personally, but we certainly read about them in the paper or hear about them on the news. We get just a small glimpse of what it might have been like for the leper in today's gospel who was not even allowed to live with healthy people. We also better understand the courage and compassion of Jesus who touched the man and accepted him.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Try to think of people your family knows (or knows about) who are ostracized by society. Maybe there is someone at school whose clothes are more worn out or dirtier than everyone else's. Maybe there's someone at work whose odd behavior prevents him or her from being accepted. In our communities there are those who don't fit the norm—perhaps they are single parents, unemployed, sick, or living away from home either in prison, foster homes, or hospitals. Come up with some ways that as a family you can reach out to these people just as Jesus reached out to the leper. What can you do to show the same compassion Jesus showed?

Discussion Starters

- Just like the leper, my faith was especially strong when...
- The most difficult outcast for me to show compassion to is...
- Like the leper, I probably couldn't have kept my mouth shut either. A miracle I have told others about happened when...
