Plan Your Will Online

Examining our lives during this season of Lent can also include planning to care for our family if something were to suddenly happen. Making a will is an essential part of that plan and The Catholic Foundation has now made that process easier!

You can plan your will online at our site for free (www.cfngalegacy.org). It is confidential and provides you and your spouse a chance to plan in the privacy of your home. When done, simply print out the document to take to your attorney. It will save you time and money. When making your will plans, please remember to include the parish endowment fund as part of your legacy.

Last Sunday, February 26th, we celebrated the Rite of Sending at the 9:30 a.m. Mass for our candidates and Catechumens who have been preparing to become Catholic through the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA). During this brief ceremony, the parish community affirmed these individuals and sent them to Archbishop Gregory for a special liturgy at the Civic Center. During this Rite of Election and Call to Continuing Conversion, Archbishop Gregory welcomed these brothers and sisters and encouraged them on their faith journeys. At the Easter Vigil, some of these individuals will become Christians through Baptism in the Catholic Church, some will formally join the Catholic Church from other Christian denominations, and others will complete their Catholic initiation.

Please keep these brothers and sisters in your prayers.

This week John Boyle shares a meditation on his trip to Kingston:

Poverty is not a problem to be solved. It is a beautiful mystery to be contemplated and offered up to God. Our La Salette priests give us the Body and Blood of Jesus present in the accidents of bread and wine. The Eucharist gives us the strength to go out and be Christ and to share ourselves as Eucharist with others.

The love and joy we feel and give and are given by the residents in Kingston is the measure of how Christ's love sustains us and strengthens us to give love and joy to those others we find in the most difficult of circumstances. When we give with love and joy we get a glimpse of Heaven. We see the face of Christ in the men and women and children and infants who cling to us, or take our hand, or follow us from room to room. They are Christ! We are Christ! They love us totally for an hour or two while we are with them. The Brothers at the apostolates tell us that the residents are grateful to us for coming. For just showing up! We bring gifts – toothbrushes, tee-shirts, medicines, etc. – but these gifts are nothing to the gift of unconditional love we receive from the poor and marginalized.

So we rejoice in the poverty of the poor all over the world. We can't solve their poverty. That is not our mission. Instead, by our outpouring of love and the truly human faces of the poor loving us back – more fiercely perhaps than ever before, except for God's love for us – we are filled with the "indwelling of the Holy Spirit." We are given and give the Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ. This is a holy moment. This is Eucharist. This is sacrament. This is "the outward sign of inward grace ordained by Jesus Christ."

Jesus said, "The poor will always be with you." Who are the poor? Are they the broken, hungry, naked, unwashed bodies and souls we work with for a few days in Kingston? Or are the poor those of us who step back in horror, and disbelief, and disgust at what we experience and say, "I can't do it," and then step forward with Christ beside us and do it anyway?

John Boyle

Today's Gospel Reflection

Read Sunday's gospel, Mark 9:2-10.

Reflection for Families

The glory of God was revealed in the transfiguration of Jesus. Even though we weren't on the mountaintop to see this wonder, parents are in a good position to understand something about God's glory. Since their conception, our children show us the truth about the wonder of God. There's so much we don't understand about their formation and creation, but we are willing to accept the development of their lives on faith. It is our faith in God that helps us recognize the creation and growth of these precious miracles.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

We see previews to many things—especially at the beginning of videos, in commercials, or at the movie theater. Share ideas about how previews help us know what's coming and then see how these ideas help us understand what Jesus showed his disciples in this transfiguration reading.

Discussion Starters

- I know Jesus has transformed me because...
- The most beautiful scene I have ever experienced was...
- There is one person I would like to help see the glory of God during this Lenten season. To help them see I plan to...
