Gallup Member Engagement Survey

The results are inon the Gallup Member Engagement Survey which was conducted last month. In summary, the overall report indicates that St. Thomas the Apostle Parish generally ranks higher than the average mean relative to engagement of all Catholic churches in the United States and ranks above all other Christian churches in the U.S. However, the results do indicate that there is work to be done to further encourage many more of our parishioners to be truly "engaged" in the parish, not only by coming to mass but also by becoming more involved in ministries and other volunteer activities of our church.

Upon Fr. Jim's return in early May from the international meetings of the Missionaries of Our Lady La Salette in Connecticut, we will review the data with him and publish a more extensive report for our parishioners to review. Stay tuned!

God Bless,
Gus Scannapieco
Parish Administrator

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Let us pray today and throughout this week especially for an increase in vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life, especially for our diocese, that God will raise up good shepherds who will be willing to follow the example set by The Good Shepherd, Jesus.

If you think God is calling you to serve the Church as a priest or in the consecrated life, call Fr. Tim Hepburn, Director of Vocations at 404-920-7460 or write to theburn@calledbychrist.com

PARISH LIFE (Vida Parroquial)

Going Deeper into Our Faith

The call by God for each one of us is unique. Because of this reality, we answer that call in different ways.

Recently, some parishioners have chosen to go deeper into their faith by electing to take part in a program, event, retreat, etc. offered through our parish:

Evangelization Retreat---A new group of "Sheep" attended the 7-day April retreat.

First Communicants---4 sessions of 1st Holy Communion call our young ones to a new source of God's grace.

Women's Day of Reflection---Next Sunday, women of the parish will avail themselves the opportunity to slow down and draw upon the benefits of having a Grateful Heart.

Let us pray that much fruit will be produced as these parishioners persevere in their Life in Christ.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Read Sunday's gospel, John 10:11-18.

Reflection for Families

When we consider the people in our children's lives, we find most of them represented in this scripture. There are the good shepherds. Mostly they are parents and grandparents or other relatives who significantly take care in our children's upbringing. In this group we go to the limits for our children. Then there are "hired hands" who help us because they benefit in some way—usually monetarily. But when push comes to shove, how much of themselves will they invest? It even happens that sometimes the people we thought were shepherds turn out to be hired hands. Finally there are the wolves—all the things that distract the shepherds or lead the sheep away. As parents we need to be aware of who these people are in our children's lives. We even need to look into our own hearts and desires and be certain that there are no wolves luring us from our precious sheep.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Make a list of all the possible wolves in the life of a family. They are the people, places, situations, or entertainment that pull us away from the love, comfort, and care of the fold. The list might include work, social commitments, or friends. Identify the more serious "wolves" and make a plan as a family about how you will protect your family from them.

Discussion Starters

- Most of the time I am a sheep in the flock, but once in a while I am a wolf when...
- Sometimes it is difficult for me to be a shepherd because . . . I will try to overcome this by...
- Looking back on this situation, I recognize that I was a lost sheep and Jesus, the Good Shepherd, called me back by...
