DID YOU KNOW?

Many things happen in the course of the summer months and we want to mention a few things:

Linda Mitchell-Blount, a parishioner and leader of the Thursday Bible Study Group at St. Thomas the Apostle, has been awarded a Master's Degree in Theology at the Institute for Black Catholics, Xavier University in New Orleans, LA. The paper written is entitled: "Enriching the Catholic Evangelization Process through a Catechesis Approach." The paper was written on the practicum of work Linda had done with our Education/Formation Program at St. Thomas the Apostle. Congratulations, Linda!

Fr. John Welch, M.S. has recently been appointed Parochial Vicar at St. Oliver Plunkett parish in Snellville, GA. Welcome back to our backyard, Fr. John! Other La Salette news is that Fr. Ray Cadran, M.S. has left St. Ann, Marietta to become our La Salette Formation Director at the Chicago Theological Union; and we welcome Fr. Nicodemus Aung Than Aye as a new Parochial Vicar at St. Ann. Fr. Nico comes south from the Attleboro Shrine in Massachusetts, and is originally from Burma.

Every Saturday morning a group of our parishioners feed the homeless who live in the area around I-285 and I-20. Earlier in the week they receive donated food from Los Bravos and from the Atlanta Bread Company in Smyrna. When you visit these two restaurants, please thank them for helping us to Feed the Homeless.

In July, Joseph Grone, son of Keith and Carol, was awarded a Master of Arts Degree in Theology from the University of Notre Dame. Joey has taken a teaching position at St. Pius High School here in the Atlanta Archdiocese.

Lastly, did you know that our parish has eight young men in formation for the priesthood with the Missionaries of the Nativity of Mary in Mexico? They are Mauricio López, Rafael Martínez, Saúl Mondragón, Rodrigo Padrón, Liborio Ríos, Benjamín Salomón, Sergio Trejo, and Samuel Vázquez,

Please accompany them with your prayers.

The RCIA in depth

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process where the Catholic Church welcomes new adult members into the Church. It is a restoration of the ancient practice of initiation into the Church: a process of discernment and ritualizing the stages of conversion leading to initiation into the Church through the sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation and the Eucharist. The RCIA is not a program but a sacramental process.

The RCIA is one rite; however, it is divided into various periods that respect the individual's journey of faith. These periods of initiation and formation are marked by liturgical celebrations that serve as transitions or steps throughout the rite.

The RCIA:

- Is intended to facilitate the experience of conversion and the response of faith. At the heart of this experience is the proclamation of the saving death and resurrection of Jesus Christ
- Respects the individual experience of conversion, offering a process that accommodates and adapts to one's journey in faith in the midst of the community
- Creates a dynamic for adults to share faith together. Hence it is meant for groups of adults, while respecting the individual's experience of God
- Is celebrated in the midst of the parish
- Emphasizes the close relationship between liturgy and formation. Growth in faith is ritualized in various ways throughout the RCIA process. Recognizes that growth in faith that leads an individual to commitment happens gradually and in discernible periods
- Affirms the responsibility for ministry and service of all the baptized
- Recognizes the importance of incorporating the particular needs and demands of the parish and the participants in the RCIA program. It tries to authentically express the conversion experience of the participants
- It provides a pathway to answers to the hows and whys of our Catholic faith
