Non-perishable food items can be left in the food bins in Commons or you can contribute monetarily (make checks payable to SVdP and drop in collection baskets on dedicated weekends.)

If you would like to volunteer with our St. Vincent de Paul Society, please leave a message at 770-432-8579 Ext. 300.

Strangers No Longer: Our Journey of Hope Continues

2013 commemorates the 10th anniversary of the historic joint pastoral letter of the United States and Mexico bishops' conferences, Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope.

During National Migration Week take part in the USCCB's Justice for Immigrants Campaign by sending an electronic postcard to your U.S. Senators and Representatives asking that they pass just and compassionate immigration reform legislation in the 113th Congress.

Go to www.justiceforimmigrants.org to type in your address and send a postcard to our Georgia Senators and your House Representative. The site also provides more information about the US Conference of Catholic Bishops' position on immigration and a copy of Strangers No Longer: Together on the Journey of Hope in English and Spanish.

No internet access?
Use the following sample to write to your Georgia Senator:

Dear Senator:
I agree with the U.S. Catholic bishops that now is the time to pass just and compassionate immigration reform. I ask that in the 113th Congress you support immigration reform that

- Provides a path to citizenship for undocumented persons in the country;
- Preserves family unity as a corner-stone of our national immigration system;
- Provides legal paths for low-skilled immigrant workers to come and work in the United States;
- Restores due process protections to our immigration enforcement policies;
- Addresses the root causes (push factors) of migration, such as persecution and economic disparity.

I look forward to monitoring your public position on this vital issue to our nation.
Our nation can no longer wait.

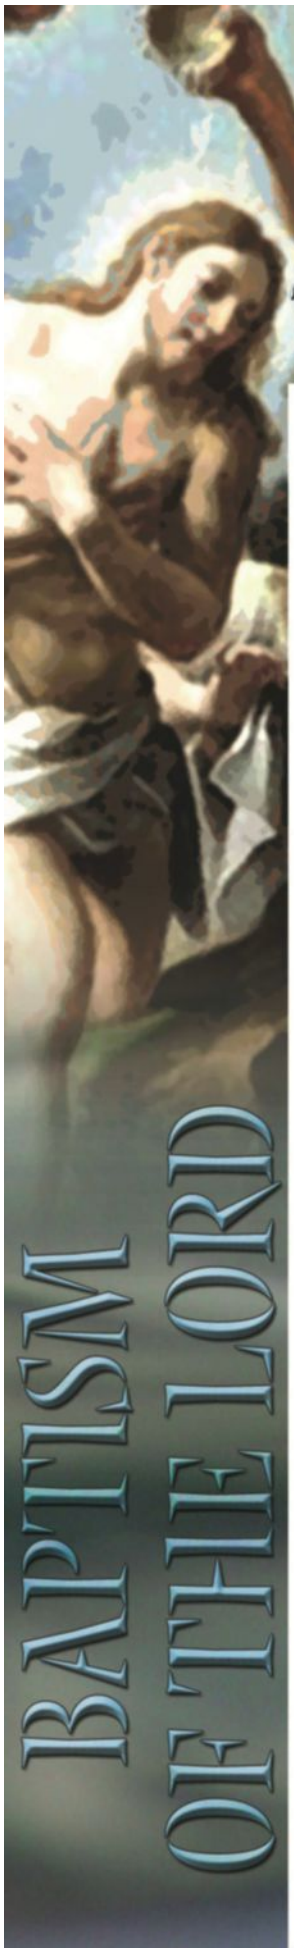
Lord God,
you revealed your Son in the waters of the Jordan and anointed him with the power of the Holy Spirit to proclaim good news to all people.

Sanctify us by the same Spirit, that we may proclaim the healing power of the gospel by acts of love in your name. Amen



Today's Gospel:

Luke 3:15-16, 21-22

Reflection for Parents

As parents we can easily understand the proud words from heaven calling Jesus a beloved child. We may not always be pleased with the actions of our children, but they are indeed our beloved. It is through our baptism and the baptism of our children that we are all part of God's family. Like building relationships by staying in touch with our extended family, we help our children stay in touch with God's family by taking time to pray and worship together.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Make a list of acts that are characteristic of a loving family member. Perhaps someone sits with a sick child or parent. Maybe you support one another with your presence at a game or concert. Or you might value each person pulling their own weight by completing assigned chores. Once you have finished this list, find similarities between items for your family and what a caring member of God's family does for other members. How are these actions carried out in your own parish? How is your family contributing to God's family?

Discussion Starters

- A moment of a new beginning happened for me when . . .
- This year I will be a contributing member of God's family by . . .
- I know God is pleased with me when . . .

Gospel Reflection courtesy of RCL Benziger

Question of the Week:

Do you think that God was "well pleased" by your actions in recent weeks? Why?
