Habitat for Humanity: Unity Through Love

Volunteers needed to help with construction; no special skills are required (on-the-job training will be provided).

To volunteer, please contact Tony Pearson-Clarke at 770-420-9495 or e-mail: pearsonClarke@bellsouth.net.

Fundraising and volunteer sign-up has begun for the construction of St. Thomas's 19th Habitat for Humanity home. Please consider a $30 donation, or give what you can. Make checks payable to "Northwest Atlanta Habitat" and place the envelope in the weekly offertory collection.

Thank you for your generosity and for your prayers.

Hábitat para la Humanidad: Ayúdanos a construir una vivienda digna para una familia de escasos recursos. Considera una donación de $30 que nos ayudará a comprar materiales de construcción. Today's Gospel Reflection

Today's Gospel:
John 16:12-15

Reflection for Families:

How many meals do we prepare not knowing exactly who will eat them? As the dynamics of our families change, there may be a few more or a few less at each meal. Sometimes we invite co-workers or neighbors at the last minute to join us for dinner, or our children may ask if "Joey can stay for dinner!" We can be creative stretching a meal to feed a few more or have some really great leftovers for the next day's lunch! However they turn out, our meals are opportunities for sharing love—by our efforts in preparation, with those who gather at the table, and the conversation we share as we eat. Mealtime is important for all families, and we need to make every effort to help them become sacred moments of the day.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family:

Who does your family know who is hungry, alone, or does not have enough to eat? Maybe you know someone who fits into two or even all three of these categories. Make an effort to take a meal to them, or better yet, have them share a meal and conversation with your family. Learn as much as you can about their needs by listening carefully to what they tell you in conversation. After the event, decide if there is anything you learned that you might do to help lighten their burden.

Reflection courtesy of: RCL Benziger

A note from your Pastor—Fr. Brian

Re: PROPER ATTIRE FOR BEING IN OUR WORSHIP SPACE

Brothers & Sisters:

Once in a while, I hear from parishioners who attend worship at Mass and other liturgies about how others are dressed for the occasions. The greatest concern is when someone expresses how difficult it is to concentrate on the worship because of the way someone dresses that attracts their attention and painfully causes the mind to wander where one doesn't really want to go in a time of worshipping God and contemplating the things of Heaven.

I ask for each parishioner to evaluate his or her way of being clothed for worship. The priest, deacon and ministers and all of us are being invited to dress UP for our occasions to be united in prayer and praise of God.

Formal is better than informal and casual. Modest is better than immodest and provocative. "Cover more" rather than "show more" of our bodies might be another way of creating a less distracting atmosphere. Let us remember that we have been clothed in Christ. Let's help one another focus on Christ in the way that we come dressed to Church.

Remember the time when people put on their "Sunday best" to go to church? In fact, dress clothes were often referred to as Sunday clothes in some parts of the country. Too often, dress in church has become very casual. In all areas of our lives, we should offer Christ our best, and the same is true of our dress. We should offer Christ our "Sunday best". We should dress modestly, not in a flashy way that would bring attention to ourselves. Our dress should always be becoming of a Christian - especially at church.

Thanks for your attention to this matter of faith, hope and love of the God we worship together. Fr. Brian

Re: ATUENDO APROPIADO PARA NUESTRO LUGAR DE ALABANZA

Hermanos y Hermanas:

De vez en cuando escucho a algunos feligreses que vienen a Misa y otras liturgias hablar sobre la forma en que otros vienen vestidos para estas ocasiones. La preocupación más grande es cuando hay alguien que distrae con su atuendo, atrayendo la atención de otros y provocando pensamientos que no son dignos de un templo de alabanza a Dios. Le pido a cada uno de nuestros y nuestras feligreses que evalúen la forma en la que se visten para venir a Misa. El sacerdote, los diáconos y ministros son invitados a vestirse bien para la ocasión de unirnos en oración y alabanza a Dios. Formal es mejor que informal y casual. Modestia es mejor que sin modestia y provocativo.

"Tapar más" en lugar de "mostrar más" de nuestros cuerpos es otra forma de crear una atmósfera con menos distracción. Recordemos que somos cubiertos con el manto de Cristo. Ayudémonos mutuamente a concentrarnos en Cristo con la forma en que nos vestimos para venir a la iglesia.

¿Recuerdan la época en que la gente se "vestía con ropa de domingo" para venir a Misa? A menudo, el atuendo en la iglesia es casual. En todas las áreas de nuestras vidas, debemos ofrecer lo mejor de nosotros a Cristo, y lo mismo aplica para la forma en que vestimos. Debemos ofrecer a Cristo nuestras "ropas de domingo". Debemos vestirnos modestamente, no atrayendo las miradas hacia nosotros. Nuestro atuendo siempre debe ser cristiano—especialmente en la iglesia.

Gracias por su atención en este asunto de fe, esperanza y amor del Dios al que alabamos juntos. Padre Brian.
