Stewardship Reflection

A "talent" is not necessarily something at which we are very skilled. Being a good steward of our talents means using whatever God gave us to the best of our ability to build up His Kingdom. When we name our talents we are not bragging because we know that each trait is a gift from God. And we did not feel that we do not have enough talents to make a difference. God will make whatever he gave us "enough" to fulfill His plan if we generously share the gifts we do have with others.

Altar Flowers

The Altar Flowers this weekend are offered by Matthew & Patricia VanBuren in thanksgiving for their 11th wedding anniversary.

Would you like to have a special way to remember a loved one? Are you celebrating an anniversary? Is there someone in your life celebrating a special birthday? For any of these occasions or more, you are invited to request flowers for the altar. Please sign up on the list on the bulletin board in the Commons Area. Suggested donation: $30.

Flores para el altar

Por favor anota tu nombre e intención en la lista disponible en el pizarrón del Area Común. Las Flores del Altar nos permiten recordar de manera especial a un ser querido o una fecha de aniversario o cumpleaños especial. Se sugiere una donación de $30.

“Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one’s life does not consist of possessions.”

Luke 12:15

Gospel Reflection

Today’s Gospel:
Luke 12:13-21

Reflection for Families:

How many families do we know about, sadly maybe our own, who have been injured and separated by financial issues. One person expects a portion of an inheritance but doesn’t receive it. Maybe some unexpected person benefits from a family member’s generosity and leaves a brother, sister, or child feeling neglected or overlooked. As parents we want to make the lives of our children comfortable and so we go about accumulating wealth and materials possessions, but the Gospel today cautions us to beware of placing importance in the wrong places. We have no idea what will happen to our accumulations, but we do know God’s promise that if we are prepared at the moment our lives are recalled, we will have wealth beyond measure in heaven.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Make a list of all the “extra” things your family has. Most likely the list will be extensive. What things on this list bring your family security? (Remember there’s nothing wrong with taking care of our families and building security!) Now imagine that a great disaster has been predicted for tomorrow and there’s a good chance you won’t be here the next day. Which of these things are now important? Is there anything you would alter on the list knowing that you only have a couple days left on this earth? When you have finished, ask each person what changes he/she might make in his/her life because of this exercise and then help or support one another in those changes.

Discussion Starters

- The riches I store up for heaven include . . .
- I am especially greedy when it comes to . . .
- The richest person I know in the sight of God is . . . because . . .
