Stewardship Reflection

Martha and Mary are the focus of this weekend's Gospel, which abounds with rich themes about hospitality, service, and finding the right balance between action and prayerful attention to the Lord. Christians who are good stewards of their faith life realize that if they are too busy to enjoy peaceful, private time with the Lord, then something is out of balance in their spirituality.

If we make time for Mass, but then carry on with our busy schedules without prayer, meditation and reflection, we are missing out. If we find ourselves anxious and harried by life's routines, could it be a sign that something in our spiritual life needs some serious attention?

Habitat for Humanity

Follow in the footsteps of the carpenter!

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED! We are raising funds to buy building materials and recruiting volunteers to help with the build. If you can help with fund raising, just place a check made out to "Northwest Atlanta Habitat" in the weekly offertory. To volunteer to assist with the build, please contact Tony Pearson-Clarke at 770-420-9495 or e-mail him at pearsonclarke@bellsouth.net. You will be contacted, by telephone, in July with your work schedule.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Today's Gospel:
Luke 10:38-42

Reflection for Families:
Parents (especially mothers!) often classify themselves as Marys or Marthas. The demands of caring for a family while often earning a living outside the home, makes a Martha out of most of us whether that's what we want to be or not. We really have to concentrate on being Mary not only in our attentiveness to God but in our relationships with our families. Sometimes we have to schedule time to relax and just "be" with one another. "Being" is often more wise, more healthy, and more loving than "doing."

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family
Listen to God's Word together as a family. Have each member of the family share a favorite Bible story. Depending on the ages of people, either retell a story, read it from the Bible or use a children's Bible. When the family member is finished telling his/her story, have that person explain why it is a favorite story and how the story helps us live today according to the way God wants us to live.

Discussion Starters
- I am more like Mary/Martha because . . .
- One way I will work to keep a balance of working/serving and listening to God's word is . . .
- I will try to be more welcoming to someone who is difficult for me by . . .

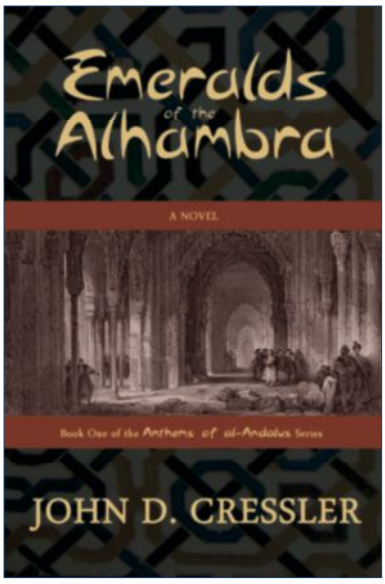
Book Club Presents:
Emeralds of the Alhambra!



WHAT: The Annual Book Club Recruitment Meeting

Come and enjoy this special presentation along with some refreshments followed by a question and answer period.

The book will be available for those who may want to purchase it.
The paperback version is $19.95 or you can purchase an eBook for $8.99.
