FAQ's about Giving

WHAT IS THE 2016 ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL?

The Archdiocese of Atlanta conducts an annual campaign (as is the case in most dioceses in the United States) to help fund the work of its offices and ministries throughout north and central Georgia. The Appeal commences in January and concludes in December of 2016. The Appeal will include an in-pew pledge process held on the two weekends prior to Ash Wednesday.

WHAT IS THE IN-PEW PROCESS AND WHY ARE WE USING IT?

The in-pew process is designed to reach parishioners directly in their seats at Mass. Parishioners will be directed through the process step-by-step by the pastor or his designee as representatives of the Archbishop. It is used because it gives parishioners who may not be registered in a parish or who did not respond to the Archbishop's letter an opportunity to give.

WHY SHOULD PEOPLE GIVE?

We should give because we are grateful for the gifts that God has given us in our lives and because of the great good that our giving brings to the world.

I ALREADY SUPPORT MY PARISH. ISN'T THAT ENOUGH?

The Annual Appeal provides the opportunity to support our wider Church family, the Archdiocese of Atlanta, as well as our own parish ministries. When we say the Creed, we reaffirm the fact that we are members of the "one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church." We are saying that we believe that every parish and every parishioner is responsible not only for his or her parish, but also for the well-being of the Church throughout the archdiocese and the world.

WHAT SHOULD I GIVE TO THE ARCHBISHOP'S ANNUAL APPEAL?

Jesus Himself gave us a guideline, "Share from your substance, not from your surplus." You are the best judge of what this means for you—not just what you can afford, but what God is calling you to do. We do offer a guide—at least one percent of your income to the Archbishop's Annual Appeal, five percent to your parish, and four percent to other charities and/or second collections, but always giving according to your means.

HOW WILL MY GIFT BENEFIT THE PARISHES OUTSIDE OF METROPOLITAN ATLANTA?

The offices of the archdiocese are available to provide support to all parishes regardless of location.

The Archbishop's Annual Appeal funded the education of priests currently serving in your parish. Catechists who are teaching the children of your parish receive training and support through our Office of Formation and Discipleship. Engaged couples receive pre-marital counseling retreats. All of these are examples of the wide variety of services provided by archdiocesan offices and ministries to parishes and parishioners across the archdiocese.

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time—Year C Fulfilled

“Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in your hearing.” However, more than one Scripture passage is fulfilled in this gospel. The words and deeds of Jesus fulfill the Scripture passage from Isaiah about the coming of salvation: glad tidings for the poor, liberty for captives, sight for the blind, freedom for the oppressed. The words and deeds of the people fulfill the Scripture passages about rejecting and killing God’s prophets: they question Jesus’ origins, become furious at His words, and act to destroy Him. Which Scripture passages do you hear? Which do we fulfill?

Ash Wednesday (February 10th) is a day of fasting and abstinence.
El Miércoles de Ceniza (10 de febrero) es un día de ayuno y abstinencia.

Church Regulations regarding Fast and Abstinence during Lent

Abstinence from meat (beast or fowl) is to be observed by all Catholics 14 years old and older on Ash Wednesday and on all Fridays of Lent. This obligation prohibits the eating of meat, but not eggs, milk products, or condiments of any kind, even though made from animal fat.

Fasting means limiting oneself to one full meal on a given fast day. Catholics who are 18 years of age but not yet 59, are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. On fast days, two additional smaller meals are permitted if necessary to maintain strength. However, the two smaller meals together may not equal one full meal. Moreover, eating solid foods between meals on fast days is not permitted.

Abstinence and Fasting

Abstinencia y
 Ayuno

Reglamento Iglesia respecto
 Ayuno y Abstinencia Durante la Cuaresma

La abstinencia de carne (animal o ave) debe ser observada por todos los católicos de 14 o más años de edad el Miércoles de Ceniza y todos los viernes de Cuaresma. Esta obligación prohíbe el consumo de carne, pero no los huevos, productos lácteos, o condimentos de cualquier tipo, a pesar de que tengan grasa animal.

Ayuno significa limitarse a una comida completa en un día de ayuno. Católicos de 18 a 59 años de edad, están obligados a ayunar el Miércoles de Ceniza y el Viernes Santo. En los días de ayuno, dos refrigerios pequeños están permitidos si es necesario para mantener la fuerza. Sin embargo, estos refrigerios en conjunto no pueden ser iguales a una comida completa. Además, comer alimentos sólidos entre comidas no está permitido en los días de ayuno.

Blessing of the Throats

BLESSING OF THROATS will be offered on Wednesday, February, 3rd

- At the 6:30 a.m. Mass,
- at a 9:30 a.m. Liturgy of the Word,
- and at the 7:00 p.m. Mass.
- All are welcome.

The Blessing of the Throats is a sacramental of the Roman Catholic Church, celebrated on February 3rd, the feast day of Saint Blaise of Sebaste.

Two candles blessed on February 2nd, Candlemas Day or better known as the Feast of the Presentation, are put together in the form of a cross and applied to the throat under the chin while offering the following prayer by the Priest or Deacon:

"Through the intercession of Saint Blaise, Bishop and Martyr, may you be delivered from every ailment of the throat and any other ailment in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."
Amen

A Stewardship Moment Un Momento de Corresponsabilidad

In today's second reading we find one of the most beautiful and familiar passages in the Bible; a recitation of fifteen characteristics of Christian love typically read at weddings and anniversary celebrations. Of course, this was not what Saint Paul had in mind when he was chastising the Christian community at Corinth for its lack of love. He admonished the members of the community to exercise better stewardship of Christian love. The practice of patience, humility, joy, truth, peace, affirmation, and hope are ways good stewards put love into action. Might there be one or two of these attributes we can work on in order to grow in our love for God and others?

En la segunda lectura de hoy, encontramos uno de los pasajes más hermosos y familiares para nosotros en la Biblia; la recitación de 15 características del amor cristiano leídas generalmente en las bodas y en las celebraciones de aniversarios. Por supuesto, no era esto lo que San Pablo tenía en mente cuando él estaba reprendiendo a la comunidad cristiana en Corinto por su falta de amor. Él amonestó a los miembros de la comunidad para que ejercitaran una mejor corresponsabilidad del amor cristiano. La práctica de la paciencia, la humildad, la alegría, la verdad, la paz, la afirmación y la esperanza, son caminos a través de los cuales los buenos corresponsales ponen el amor en acción. ¿Habrá uno o dos de estos atributos en los que podamos trabajar para crecer en nuestro amor por Dios y por los otros?
