Celebrating 50 years of UNITY in COMMUNITY
Celebrando 50 años de UNIDAD en COMUNIDAD

5th Sunday of Easter—Year C

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus gives his followers a new commandment—to love one another as he has loved us. He lets us all know that the way others will know that we follow Jesus is by the love we show to others.

Pray Together

As an evening prayer, reread this Sunday's Gospel about loving one another as Christ has loved you. Take turns praying in your own words for people who need your love. After everyone has had at least one turn, pray together the Our Father, the Hail Mary, and the Glory Be. Make a promise to help one another be a more loving and caring family.

Biblical Migration Tuesday, May 10th

BIBLICAL MIGRATION PRESENTATION

Tuesday, May 10th

7:00 p.m. (Room location to be advised)

PRESENTER: Kat Doyle, Director of Justice and Peace Ministries, from the office of the Archdiocese

LIMITED SEATING:

Sign-up Required – Available in Commons through May 8th.

Salvation, forgiveness, unconditional love of God, are just some of the many themes found in the Bible. One theme stands out as a central since it has been with us since the beginning of time – MIGRATION. Migration is the term for the movement of people between different countries. One of today's issues is that of immigration, which is not a new issue, and certainly not an issue only in the United States.

Come and welcome Kat Doyle as she takes us on a migration journey starting at the beginning of the Bible and bringing us to where we are today. Learn more about the biblical history of migration and how we are called as Christians to respond.
