MEMORARE TO OUR LADY OF LA SALETTE

Remember, Our Lady of La Salette, true mother of Sorrows, the tears you shed for us on Calvary.

Remember also the care you have taken to keep us faithful to Christ, your Son.

Having done so much for your children,
you will not now abandon us.

Comforted by this consoling thought, we come to you pleading, despite our infidelities and ingratitude.

Virgin of Reconciliation, do not reject our prayers, but intercede for us, obtain for us the grace to love Jesus above all else.

May we console you by living a holy life and so come to share the eternal life Christ gained by His cross.

Amen.

Do you have a family member currently serving in the military?
Are you a veteran or have you returned from active duty recently?

The Remember Their Sacrifice Ministry has been established to serve the needs of military families within our parish.

The Remember Their Sacrifice Ministry has three goals:

- 1) To facilitate a way for parishioners to communicate with members currently serving,
- 2) To sponsor prayer and sharing sessions for all veterans and those returning from active duty as well as similar sessions for parents, spouses, siblings, and children of those serving,
- 3) To sponsor special liturgies for all active duty members of the military as well as all veterans of all conflicts, their families and friends on Veterans Day and Memorial Day

For more information call Roger at 770-315-3534

St. Vincent de Paul Pantry

Our St. Vincent de Paul Society (SVdP) is in need of the following items for their pantry: canned fruit, mashed potatoes and juices. We are also collecting toilet paper, laundry detergent, dishwashing soap, shampoo, bar soap, toothpaste, cooking oil and cereal.

Our SVdP Pantry also collects items through the Brown Bag Drive. Bags and shopping lists are distributed once a month at the end of the weekend Masses.

Help build Hope

The Saint Thomas Habitat Ministry has joined with the Smyrna-Cobb Habitat Coalition, an ecumenical effort, to build our eighteenth home in West Cobb County. Construction is well underway on the home for the Nyoka family; with just landscaping yet to be done. Watch the bulletin for the time and location of the home dedication scheduled for October 16th.

Help is still needed with our fundraising effort, as we are falling far short of our goal of $10,000.

Please consider a $30 donation.

You will find donation envelopes on the Habitat lattice board in Commons. Just place one with your donation in the weekly offertory. Please give what you can; all help is greatly appreciated.

Check out the Habitat lattice board in Commons to see pictures of this year's build.

God Bless you for your generosity and your prayers.

We looking for a person interested in leading the ministry to welcome new parishioners, to invite new members and to help support the ministry's ongoing efforts! For more information, please email yeymereyes@yahoo.com or call 678-925-6786.

Do You know the Mass? Prayers at the preparation of the gifts

The Liturgy of the Eucharist begins with the preparation of the gifts. When the bread and wine are placed upon the altar and raised by the Priest as an offering to God, we often hear two prayers spoken aloud over each element (they can also be spoken quietly by the Priest).

The current versions of these two prayers are very familiar, so it is easy to see that the differences are relatively minor. The first is spoken when the Priest lifts the paten (the sacred vessel that holds the unleavened bread), and second is said at the lifting of the chalice.

The prayers accompanying the offering of the bread and wine are very important, because they express the sacramental reality of the Sacred Liturgy. Through our human work amidst creation, we offer back to God what is already His (the new translation highlights that we first “received” these gifts from Him), and He brings it to its heavenly fulfillment. In an overarching sense, this applies to our entire Christian lives on earth. Just as the bread and wine become Christ’s Body and Blood, we look forward to our resurrection in glorified bodies (as we profess in the Creed), and also to the perfection of all creation in the heavenly Jerusalem.

The people’s response to both prayers remains, “Blessed be God for ever” (a phrase that is actually a traditional introduction for Jewish prayers).

The entire preceding exchange during the preparation of the gifts bears similarity to prayers found in an episode from the Book of Daniel, when Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego are cast into a fiery furnace for refusing to worship an idol created by King Nebuchadnezzar. Abednego (also known as Azariah) utters a prayer from within the furnace that begins, “Blessed are you, and praiseworthy, O Lord, the God of our fathers, and glorious forever is your name” (Dan 3:26). And as the three men are kept safe by an Angel while in the furnace, they sing a litany of praise, wherein they repeatedly bless the Lord and extol His name “above all forever.”

After offering the bread and wine, the Priest then quietly recites, “With humble spirit and contrite heart...” More than a simple rearranging of the current translation, the new text is a much clearer allusion to a portion of the same prayer spoken by Abednego in the furnace: “But with contrite heart and humble spirit let us be received; as though it were holocausts of rams and bullocks, or thousands of fat lambs, so let our sacrifice be in your presence today as we follow you unreservedly; for those who trust in you cannot be put to shame” (Dan 3:39-40). This also recalls Psalm 51 (50), which affirms that the Lord desires a humble heart over burnt sacrifices.

Afterwards comes the washing of the Priest’s hands, accompanied by another quiet prayer whereby the Priest seeks purity.
