We Need Your Help!

Today we invite people of Saint Thomas the Apostle parish to be more than members of our Church. We call them to be disciples and good stewards. We are taught to live a way of life based on the understanding that all is a gift from God; everything we are and have is freely given for our good. So we should return a portion of our gifts to God in gratitude for God's abundant generosity. This is the basis for stewardship. Stewardship of time, talent and treasure is another way of worshipping, praising and thanking God.

A Lenten tribute like never seen before!

PEW ANGELS NEEDED!

Do you have some time on Mondays and/or Fridays at 10:00 a.m. to straighten up the pews in the church?

Margarette Lesperance, a parishioner, is one of many who over the years has volunteered her time to this small but important task in the sanctuary. Recently she shared her thoughts on her efforts to help:

"When my four children were young and I would bring them to mass, often times they would mess up the pews. But there was always someone who would come behind them and clean up the church. Now that my children are grown, it is my turn to give back and straighten up the church after the little ones of others."

Call the office if you would like to be a Pew Angel, or just join in.

Se Buscan Angelitos de las Bancas

¿Tienes tiempo los lunes y/o viernes para ayudarnos a acomodar los materiales de las bancas?

Margarette Lesperance, quien asiste a nuestra parroquia y durante muchos años ha ayudado en esta tarea, compartió con nosotros lo siguiente:

"Cuando mis cuatro hijos estaban pequeños y yo los traía a Misa, siempre desordenaban las bancas. Pero siempre había alguien que las acomodaban otra vez. Ahora me toca a mí devolver el favor y ayudar a ordenar los materiales de las bancas."

Llama a la oficina parroquial si deseas ayudarnos como Angelito(a) de las Bancas.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Read Sunday's gospel: Mark 1:14–20

Reflection for Families

The faith and trust of these early disciples is hard to imagine. Everything Andrew, Peter, James, and John had known disappeared as they began a new way of living found in their company with Jesus. We often see these dramatic conversions among candidates in the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) and the Children's Catechumenate.

Something may have happened recently in a person's life that brought them to the point of conversion. It is important that you help your family, along with the entire Christian family, to affirm and support these folks in the months ahead.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

The fishermen were busy going about their business of fishing and earning a living. Still, something in their busyness caused them to not only stop their work and listen to Jesus, but drop what they were doing and follow him. We all live very busy lives today, too. Stop to consider where you hear Jesus' call in your busy day. Share these moments with one another and explain how you did (or didn't) respond to the call. Offer support to one another as you work to better answer Jesus' call in the future.

Discussion Starters

- A life-changing call for me that came from Jesus happened when...
- Like the first fishermen, I am a gatherer of people for Jesus when...
- Jesus called more than one disciple at time. It also helps me to be called with others because...
