Each year at this time, we, the Staff of Religious Education, find ourselves thinking of the scene in the Gospel of Matthew where Jesus is found walking along the Sea of Galilee. He calls to the fishermen with divine authority when he tells them to drop their nets and follow him. The response is immediate! The fishermen leave boats, nets, families, everything that was safe and secure to become no longer fishermen, but fishers of people—the people of God.

This same type of call goes out every year as we consider the need for new catechists to continue Jesus' mission.

This year several faithful catechists have heard the call to volunteer in other ministries and so are leaving us. That's where you come in...

Pray for guidance from the Holy Spirit. Then listen quietly. Do you hear the call in your heart to join in this important ministry? If the answer is "Yes," pick up the phone and give the PSR office a call at 770-432-5296. We will answer any questions and give you the best training possible. (And remember: We are not asking you to leave your families :)

All grade levels and days of the week have openings:

Sunday @ 9:30 a.m. & 11:15 a.m.

Monday @ 4:30 p.m. & 7:00 p.m.

Wednesday @ 7:00 p.m.

Thursday @ 7:00 p.m.

Necesitamos voluntarios dedicados que sirvan como catequistas, una hora a la semana. Interesados por favor comunicarse con Elizabeth Medina al 770-432-8579, Ext. 115

Saint Thomas Café

*After ALL Masses
in the Social Hall*

Volunteers from the Small Faith Communities are joining together to help raise additional funds needed so that we might Move Forward In Hope to build a new church. Stop by the Social Hall after every mass and enjoy a meal. Many people go out to a restaurant on the weekends. Won't you consider dining in or carrying out at least one meal on the weekend at the St. Thomas Café? Even if you are not interested in eating a meal right now, take it home with you, or come back later today and enjoy one of your meals here. Remember, all proceeds go toward building our new church. Little by little, every little bit helps.

Gracias a las Pequeñas Comunidades por su ayuda en la Venta de Comidas en el Salón Social a la salida de todas las Misas (Saint Thomas Café) Todos los fondos serán usados para la construcción de nuestra nueva iglesia.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Read Sunday's gospel, John 6:24-35

Reflection for Families

As parents, we spend a great deal of our resources (time, energy, money) providing bread for our family. We know, of course, that "bread" is figurative for housing, clothing, food, fine arts lessons, sports instruction, vacations and camps. We are challenged by this gospel today to spend at least an equal amount of our resources helping our children recognize Jesus as the true bread from heaven. Consider sincerely how you might meet the challenge of this gospel.

Bringing the Gospel into Your Family

Jesus was a real person, visible to people we read about in the Bible. From earlier scriptures (in the Season of Easter) we know Jesus is still with us today. Think together about some of the ways we know Jesus' presence in our world. Share how you understand that Jesus is present to us in the Eucharist at Mass.

Discussion Starters

- My image of Jesus in the Eucharist is...
- As I grow older, my value of material things has changed in that...
- I recognized Jesus as true bread from heaven this week when...
