Turn to Page 6 for a more in depth explanation of RCIA.

RCIA is starting soon; register now!! Are you someone who....

PARISH LIFE (Vida Parroquial)

DID YOU KNOW?

Many things happen in the course of the summer months and we want to mention a few things:

Maria Croshaw, a long-time parishioner, has accepted a 2 year contract with "Teach Away" as an educator in Al 'Anin know as the "Graden City of the Gulf" in the United Arab Emirates. Al 'Anin is located about 2 hours from Dubai. Maria will return to Georgia during her students' summer break. We wish Maria God's blessings in this endeavor.

(There was a mistake in last week's bulletin regarding one of the restaurants in the information below. A correction has been made:)

Every Saturday morning a group of our parishioners feed the homeless who live in the area around I-285 and I-20. Earlier in the week they receive donated food from Los Bravos in Smyrna and Dough in the Box in Austell. When you visit these two restaurants, please thank them for helping us to Feed the Homeless.

News from Fr. Jose in Australia!!!

Greetings from the Land of Kangaroos!

It has been more than a year that I left Smyrna to join in the pastoral team of La Salettes in Australia, in view of establishing La Salette presence in this country. As a part of it, my first assignment here was in St. Andrew the Apostle

Church, as an associate pastor with an Australian Diocesan priest. Starting pastoral ministry in a new place and new area is always hard and difficult. But I always felt the support and prayers of so many people from St. Thomas, Smyrna. Thank you so much for your support and prayers. I am humbled and touched by your love and support. I will never forget St. Thomas, the people, the staff and pastoral team and will always have the deepest love and affection for the wonderful times I spent there.

I write this also to inform you all about the new development that is taking place. The Bishop of the Diocese decided to entrust a beautiful parish to the care of the La Salettes, like we do in Smyrna. As a part of that I am moving to the parish of St. Nicholas of Myra together with Fr. Matthew Antony (another La Salette priest). The new parish is one of the oldest parishes of the Diocese and it is one hour drive from Sydney airport. I will be starting my ministry during the first week of September. I ask all your support and prayers for this new ministry and I hope you will take notice of my new address. I will always remember you all in my prayers... All are welcome to come to Sydney anytime Until then we will be in touch with letters and emails...
