Stewardship Reflection

In today's world, we are constantly deluged with the idea that the only way we can be happy is if we purchase the next greatest thing that is being advertised. We need a new car, new clothes, or a new electronic gadget.

The First Commandment tells us that we should not "have strange gods before me." In this secular society, how many people actually keep the First Commandment and honor God above all else? Have I treated people, events or things as more important than God?

Thursday: Cleaning Day
 Lord Jesus, help me to dust out all the many faults I have been hiding in the secret corners of my heart.

Friday: Shopping Day
 O God, give me the grace to shop wisely so I may purchase eternal happiness for myself and all others In need of love.

Saturday: Cooking Day
 Help me, my Savior, to brew a big kettle of neighborly Love and serve it with clean, sweet bread of human kindness.

Sunday: The Lord's Day
 O God, I have prepared my house for you and now I go to your house to gather with my brothers and sisters in Christ to celebrate your Word and receive your Body and your Blood so as to be one with you and one with my brothers and sisters. Audio Visual Ministry

Ignite!

Tuesday, August 6th at 7:30 p.m.

Ignite! is an evening where parishioners gather together to encounter the Living Jesus in music, prayer, scripture and in the testimony of a fellow pilgrim in the journey.

When we gather together and reflect on people whose hearts are on fire with God, we too feel that our own hearts are not far from being alive with God's profound love! We are inspired, enriched and transformed. We grow more passionate about our faith.

Make Ignite! Part of your spiritual journey and join us this Tuesday, August 6th at 7:30 p.m. in the Main Sanctuary. You may also join us for dinner beforehand at 6:15 p.m. in the Social Hall. Please bring a dessert to share and also bring a friend!

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED! We are raising funds to buy building materials and recruiting volunteers to help with the build. If you can help with fund raising, just place a check made out to "Northwest Atlanta Habitat" in the weekly offertory.

To volunteer to assist with the build, please contact Tony Pearson-Clarke at 770-420-9495 or e-mail him at pearsonclarke@bellsouth.net. You will be contacted, by telephone, in July with your work schedule.

Your help gives a hand up; not a hand out. God Bless you for your generosity and your prayers.

Today's Gospel Reflection

Today's Gospel:

Luke 11:1-13

Reflection for Families:

It is easier for parents to appreciate the love God has for each of us. We strive to care for our children and provide the things necessary for their well being. We see to it that they have nutritious meals rather than junk food each day. We find a way to provide warm clothing and shoes in the cold weather. We don't hand our children something that would harm them when they ask for something that would nourish or protect them. We learn from this Gospel today that the greatest gift God can give us is the Holy Spirit. Like a child, we only need to stretch out our arms and be open to receive this gift.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

As you pray the Our Father this week, have each family member reword the prayer in a way that brings meaning to that person's life in the twenty-first century. What is the daily bread you require—what is it that you really need most? When you ask for sins to be forgiven, what are they? What are the hurts you need to forgive someone else for? What are the things that tempt us not to follow God's ways? As your family prays this week, focus on each phrase and encourage everyone to think about exactly what they are saying or asking for when they say the words of this familiar prayer.

Discussion Starters

- There are many times God has answered my prayers. One time I remember in particular was when . . .
- One thing I do when it is difficult for me to pray is . . .
- One time when my persistence paid off was when . . .

Book Club Presents: Emeralds of the Alhambra!

WHAT: The Annual Book Club Recruitment Meeting

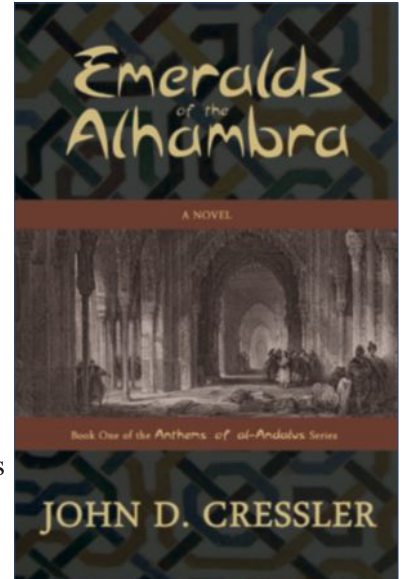

WHEN: Tuesday, August 13th at 7:00 p.m.

WHERE: Social Hall

The evening will include a special guest, John Cressler! John is a long-time member of St. Thomas the Apostle parish. He will give a talk on his new novel, Emeralds of the Alhambra, an interfaith love story set in medieval Muslim Spain... a time when Christians, Muslims and Jews lived together in relative peace, sharing languages and customs, whispering words of love across religious boundaries, embracing a level of mutual acceptance and respect unimaginable today.

Come and enjoy this special presentation along with some refreshments followed by a question and answer period.

The book will be available for those who may want to purchase it. The paperback version is $19.95 or you can purchase an eBook for $8.99.

You can get more information about the book at:

REGINA CAELI ACADEMY - Training The Mind To Form The Soul

RCA provides a highly structured environment to support the values of the Catholic faith taught in the home. We use the Mother Of Divine Grace Classical Curriculum. Our mission is family-centered, grounded in the Magisterium, and devoted to excellence in classical education. Summer training on the classical hybrid method is provided to all of our staff members and parents.
