Gratitude from the Archdiocese of Oklahoma's Catholic Charities

Please know that our parish received a letter of gratitude for our response of $1,167.11 (second collection from the weekend of May 25-26) to help in the relief efforts after the horrific tornadoes that began on May 19th. The July 15th letter mentions how $370,000 in immediate relief assistance to more than 3,400 families was provided as well as helping with funeral expenses, counseling, and assistance to navigate through the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). The letter points out how much the St. Vincent de Paul Society and the Knights of Columbus have worked tremendously in these efforts. Prayers are requested as the demands for help will continue for many more months ahead.

As Pastor, I think our parish can be proud for having responded to such a horrible natural disaster. Go STA! Fr. Brian

Altar Flowers Fund

The following families are contributing to the Altar Flowers Fund this weekend:

- Linda McPherson in memory of the Hanemann and McPherson Families.
- Hal Bergin and his nephew Ken Harper, in honor of George & Elaine Bergin on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Would you like to have a special way to remember a loved one? Are you celebrating an anniversary or a birthday? For any of these occasions or more, you are invited to request flowers for the altar. Please sign up on the list on the bulletin board in the Commons Area. Suggested donation: $30.

In Our Prayers / En Nuestras Oraciones

Morning Bible Study begins this week!

Join us on Thursdays at 10:00 a.m. beginning Thursday, August 29th. ALL ARE WELCOME!

Find out how you can enhance your Christian Journey by studying the Bible. This 2013-2014 YEAR will include studying: Psalms: The School of Prayer by Jeff Cavins, Sarah Christmyer and Tim Gray.

While the historical books of the Bible recount God's creative and redemptive acts in history, the Psalms reveal Israel's response to God's covenant offer and serve as a model for our response to Him. Indeed, one could say that the historical books tell the "outside" of the story of Israel by giving an historical perspective, while the Psalms tell the "inside" story, which comes from the deeply personal perspective of one who is seeking God. Our communication with God is enhanced by a deeper understanding of the book of Psalms and of the individual psalms that reside in each of our hearts.

Come journey through this book of the Bible and find YOUR OWN response to God's covenant offer.

Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Gospel Reflection

Today's Gospel:
Luke 13:22-30

Reflection for Families:

We are cautioned in this Gospel to be more than mere acquaintances with Jesus. We are challenged to have a deep and loving relationship with him. What's the difference between the two? We are probably best at answering that question ourselves, but perhaps we attend worship services every week to fulfill an obligation. That might be acting like an acquaintance where as participating in that mass, gathering with other worshippers afterwards, or participating in scripture study, service, or enrichment offerings of the parish would definitely deepen that relationship. Our children look to us as guides for developing their own relationship with Christ. What they see us do will be significant in their own spiritual development.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family

Think of the people you know (or know about) who are standing outside the doors of the Kingdom. Who are the people who are at risk of not entering? Go over your list and decide on some action you can take either individually or as a family that might help this person get through the narrow door. Is there something you can say or an action you can take to bring the person closer to Jesus? Perhaps you can serve them in some way that will help them recognize God's love for them. In some cases we may need to stop an action such as participating in ethnic jokes. Praying is also one thing we can do if we think a person will not be open to our other efforts. Remember too that we may not know the results of our actions until we all are at the banquet!

Discussion Starters

- I believe that I will get through the narrow door Jesus speaks of because . . .
- I probably won't be one of the first ones through the door because . . .
- The thing I notice about people who have a deep relationship with the Lord is . . .

Reflection courtesy of: RCL Benziger and some are first who will be last.
