Please pray for our kids!

Within the first 2 weekends of May, 300 children of our parish are receiving their First Eucharist. Let us remember these children in our prayers as they grow in the Lord.

Let us also remember their parents who are their first teachers and their PSR teachers all who have instructed them in the faith.

May their efforts produce much fruit in the Kingdom of God.

A SPECIAL REQUEST FROM OUR SACRISTAN:

Attention Lovely Ladies of the Parish: We have wonderful volunteers who spend countless hours soaking, scrubbing, rinsing, washing and ironing the linens used during the mass. Over the last few years as the quality of long-lasting lip color has been improved, the lasting power on fabric has created an almost impossible task for our sacristan workers. The purificators, the linens used to wipe the cup of the precious Blood of Jesus, are retaining the stains from ladies' lipstick. Ladies, please consider blotting your lip color before partaking of the Blood of Christ. Thank you.

COOKING FOR OUR CLERGY

Do you like to cook? Why not sign up to bring a Sunday meal to our priests? Directions are listed on the sign up sheet which is available on the bulletin board in the Commons. Happy Cooking!

ALTAR FLOWERS

Remember a loved one or celebrate a special anniversary or occasion by offering Altar Flowers. The suggested donation is $30. Please sign up your name and intention on the board located in the Commons Area.

World Day of
Prayer for Vocations
May 11th

Jesus, our Good Shepherd, bless all our parishes with numerous priests, deacons, men and women in religious life, consecrated laity and missionaries, according to the needs of the entire world, which you love and wish to save.

Assist our pastors and all who live a consecrated life. Guide the steps of those who have responded generously to your call and are preparing to receive Holy Orders or to profess vows.

Look with love on young people and call them to follow you. Help them to understand that in you alone can they attain complete fulfillment.

To this end we call on the powerful intercession of Mary, mother and model of all vocations. We beseech you to sustain our faith that the Father will grant what you command us to ask. Amen
- St. John Paul

We are inspired, enriched and transformed. We grow more passionate about our faith. Make Ignite! Today's Gospel: John 10:1-10

Reflection for Families

Imagine your child wandering off in a crowd of strangers – perhaps at an amusement park or a shopping mall. After an anxious period of separation, your child hears your voice above all the others calling out his or her name. The relief and joy your child would feel is the same emotion Jesus promises us when we follow his voice. The thieves that separate us from our children are not necessarily people. Sometimes we allow thieves of busyness, work priorities or even social engagements to steal control of our lives. This Gospel reminds us it is better to listen to the trusted voice of the Good Shepherd.

Bringing the Gospel Into Your Family:

Think of a person or group of people your family knows who needs to be “shepherded” (or cared for). Decide on an action you can all do together to help this person. When you have completed the service, talk over with one another how your family’s “shepherding” was similar to the shepherding Jesus talked about in today’s Gospel. Consider whether or not your service shepherded your own family as well.

Discussion Starters

- I know Jesus cares for me because . . .
- As a family we shepherd one another by . . .
- Some thieves in my life are . . .

HEALING A PAINFUL PAST (Weekend Retreat at the Monastery)

June 6th-8th at Monastery of the Holy Spirit (Conyers, GA)

We cannot go back and undo the past: the pain we have endured and the pain we might have caused. We can, however, invite God to heal our memories, helping us to forgive others, ourselves and even God. Negative memories can become windows that allow God’s love to enter our hearts, replacing anger, shame or remorse with peace, love and gratitude. For more details contact Patti at 770-760-0959 or retreat@trappist.net

CAREER QUEST: A Job-Seeker Network

EUCCHARISTIC CONGRESS:

Celebrate the visible, living presence of Jesus!

June 20th and 21st, 2014 at the
Georgia International Convention Center (College Park, GA)

Each year the Eucharistic Congress brings together Catholics from across the Archdiocese and the country to celebrate the visible, living presence of Jesus. Archbishop Gregory, along with Bishop Talley and Bishop Zarama, ask that you join them for this year’s Eucharistic Congress at the Georgia International Convention Center, June 20th and 21st.

The theme of the 2014 Eucharistic Congress comes from the Gospel of Matthew 28:19
“Go and make disciples”.

Take this opportunity to reconnect with friends, spend quiet time in prayer and listen to powerful testimonials from Fr. Dwyer, Mother Delores Hart and Jeff Cavins.
